

Limericks by Form 3LB
School Year 2017-2018

There was a Young Lady of Venice
Whose parrot was called The Old Denis
It always got angry
But she said 'crandy crandy'
That birdish Young Lady of Venice
(Sara F.)

There was an Old Person of Dax
Whose passions were corals and sharks
He climbed up a tree
To examine the sea
That curious Old Person of Dax
(Erika)

There was an Old Lady of York
Who constantly ate only pork
She went to the butcher
And said 'Woullaloucher'
That ravenous Lady of York.
(Letizia)

There was an Old Person of Rome
Who wanted to sit on a throne
He met a princess
And said 'What a mess'
That ambitious Old Person of Rome
(Zoe)

There was a Young Lady from France
Who casually invented a dance
She was moving her head
When she fell and looked dead
That unstable Young Lady from France
(Maria Rita)

There was a Mad Man with a Goat
Who put his black knife in his throat
The goat started weeping
But the clock started beeping
Oh what a weird dream of a Goat
(Ana)

There was a Young Man of Cremella
Who ate a whole lot of Nutella
He used a big spoon
Sitting under the moon
That hungry Young Man of Cremella
(Elisa Pa.)

There was an Old Man from Peru
Who dreamed he was eating his shoe
He looked left and right
For a sole he could bite
That hungry Old Man from Peru
(Alessio)

There was a Young Woman from jail
Who liked eating plants with a nail
She broke one of her teeth
And with pain couldn't breathe
That choking Young Woman from jail
(Erica)

There was a Young Woman of Greece
Who always loved living in peace
One day she went mad
And killed her Granddad
That lunatic Young Woman of Greece
(Asia)