

Limericks by Form 3LA
School Year 2014-2015

There was a Young Man of Uganda
Who dreamt of a murderous panda
He woke in the night
With a terrible fright
That slumberous Man of Uganda
(Martina)

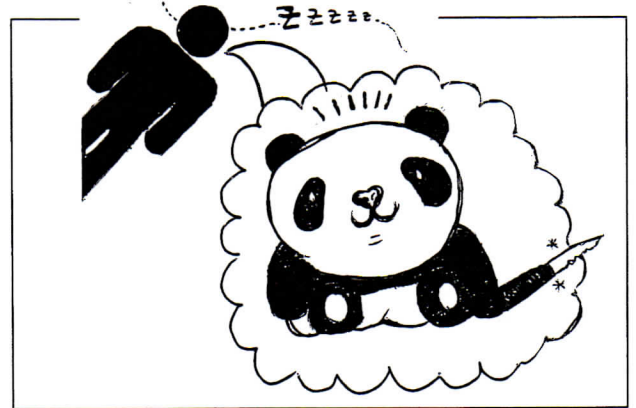

There was an Old Man of Merate
Who constantly practiced karate
He said nothing more
Than 'Lie on the floor!'
This martial Old Man of Merate
(Greta C.)

There was A Young Man from Indiana
Who fancied a lot Adriana
He said all the time
'One day you'll be mine!'
That creepy Young Man from Indiana.
(Aurora T.)

There was an Old Lady of Rome
Who hated to sleep in her home
She slept in her car
Always playing guitar
That crazy Old Lady of Rome
(Nikla)

There was a Young Man of Cernusco
Who was always drinking lambrusco
He often got drunk
Then slept in a bunk
That dizzy Young Man of Cernusco
(Daniele)

There was a Young Girl of Urbino
Who wanted to drink a crodino
She drank in a zoo
With a huge kangaroo
That crazy Young Girl of Urbino
(Aurora P.)

There was a Young Man in a castle
Who wanted to have one more muscle
He worked out all day
Without having his way
That hopeless Young Man in a castle
(Greta B.)

There was a Young Person of Naples
Who grew some disgusting potatoes
He had a big orchard
And a turkey called Richard
That farmy Young Person of Naples
(Silvia C.)

There was an Old Woman of Orange
Whose house was all painted in orange
She ate lots of carrots
With colourful parrots
That chromatic Old Woman of Orange
(Maria Chiara)

There was a Young Person of Naples
Who grew some disgusting potatoes
He had a big orchard
And a Turkey called Richard
That farmy Young Person of Naples
(Maria)

There was a Young Lady of Sicily
Who could swim in the sea very easily
She found a big fish
And yelled 'Pata-tish'
That lucky Young Lady of Sicily
(Debora)